Practical Business Action Plan

- Create clear written roles, decision rights, capital contribution rules, and exit terms before starting.
- Use the computed common safe targets 1, 5 for business name, launch dates, and key communication.
- For missing 5/6 cautions, strengthen communication, bookkeeping, client service, and relationship harmony through practical systems.
- For repeated 7 cautions, keep transparent accounts, written approvals, and documented client commitments.

Documentation Note: For partnership safety, define decision rights, capital contribution rules, bookkeeping access, exit terms, trial period, and active or silent partner responsibilities in writing. Add an office/workplace Vastu check when business stability concerns remain.

Final Recommendation

Proceed with Caution (55/100)

Strengths: At least one active pair has mutual number sharing., Common safe business target numbers: 1, 5

Cautions: All active partners miss both 5 and 6., Business name correction is recommended for active partners or business sector.

Reason: Final recommendation is based on active Pilot-to-Pilot compatibility, number sharing, missing 5/6, sector fit, role fit, and business name alignment.
